

THE JACK RUSSELL

BRITISH CHEESE PLATE – £4 per cheese

Grapes, artisan biscuits, poppy seed crackers & pear chutney

COLSTON BASSETT SHROPSHIRE BLUE - A blue veined cheese, made in Nottinghamshire with a distinctive orange interior and evenly spread blue veins. Smooth and creamy with a tang. Awarded Gold at the 2018 British Cheese Awards. (v) (p)

BARKHAM BLUE - This blue cheese comes from the Village Maid dairy in Berkshire. A multi award winning creamy cheese made with Guernsey and Jersey milk has a buttery melt in the mouth consistency. Hand-made daily using traditional techniques. The distinctive ammonite shape comes from draining and moulding the curd in kitchen colanders. (p) (v)

OLD WINCHESTER - Once recommended as a British and vegetarian alternative to Parmigiano Reggiano, this hard-pressed cows' milk cheese is made on the edge of the New Forest. Aged for 18 months it has a brittle texture and small crystals that add crunch, while the flavour is fruity and nutty with a long caramel finish. Awarded Silver at the British Cheese Awards 2018 (v) (p)

ROSARY ASH GOATS CHEESE - Rosary Goat log is dusted with a pretty sprinkling of edible charcoal. A full fat cheese with a clean fresh flavour. This Wiltshire cheese from Salisbury was awarded Silver at the British Cheese Awards 2018. (v) (p)

COTSWOLD BRIE - This Simon Weaver organic brie from Gloucester is a soft and buttery cheese made with organic milk from the farm's own herd of 250 Friesian cows. (p) (v)

GODMINSTER VINTAGE CHEDDAR - This organic moreish cheddar is made following a 90-year-old traditional recipe. Matured for up to 12 months the cheese has a deliciously smooth and creamy taste winning several awards, bound in the distinctive red wax. (v) (p)
